With ample parking for customers, Sunset Grill immediately welcomes its guests with ease and comfort. Perfectly nestled on the water, under a beautiful airy thatched palapa, with local wood accents, Sunset offers a great view of the lagoon, and if you're lucky, you can see water fowl settling in during the last glowing rays of the sun. restaurant brings to mind the San Pedro of old, when it was a quaint fishing village. It's a real treat to enjoy a meal while watching the boats come in for the night with fishermen bringing home their catch of the day.

We're greeted by our affable waiter Walter, whose charm and friendliness indicates that we are in for a treat. While he hastens to make us some delicious and refreshing margaritas, we peruse the menu, which features lots of fresh seafood and produce. To our delight, Chef Victor Nal sends out a special treat for us – a platter of scrumptious guacamole. This is no ordinary guacamole – fresh, ripe avocados are smashed with some salt and ground pepper, mixed with diced tomatoes, a squeeze of lime and sprinkling of hardboiled egg bits round out the appetizer. This spicy, tangy treat is accompanied by some stuffed chicken and cheese jalapeño poppers and fried flour tortilla strips, a welcome change from the usual corn chips, and it is just right to start off the night! While we delve into the appetizer, Walter brings our margaritas around. After confirming that we are quite happy with our drinks, Walter points out that at Sunset Grill, all drinks are special – we couldn't agree more.

The hardest part of our evening comes when we have to choose what meal to have. We're torn between the Lobster Lambada and the Stuffed Breast of Chicken, the Cashew Pesto Shrimp and the Reef and Beef combo. It took a few tortuous minutes of decision making, as all the dishes sounded quite delicious – the Almond Snapper bathed in almonds and citrus butter then roasted was quite the 'appetizer', as was the Caribbean Trio – a medley of seafood (lobster, shrimp and snapper) in a lemon-herb sauce.

It was the Lambada Lobster that caught our eye, with its promise of a creamy garlic, spinach and mozzarella cheese sauce over a freshly poached

Oapn Paki boasts 7th year birthday & joins "Boogie in Belize '07"

Rosalie Staines took to the skies for a once in a lifetime death-defying experience with Tsunami Skydivers for the third Boogie in Belize expedition as part of her show's Seventh Anniversary special.

The month of February marks a celebration of one of Belize's premier talk shows, "Oapn Paki". This show celebrates seven years of weekly national broadcasting, and what better way to do so than to jump out of a plane from 13,000 feet in the air for a once in a lifetime adrenaline rush?! In its continuing effort to enhance Belize's unlimited tourism opportunities, the show's host, Rosalie T. Staines, is partnering with the internationally acclaimed Tsunami Skydivers, Inc. for its third year - ten day Skydiving Event in San Pedro, A.C.

But who is Rosalie Staines? What is "Oapn Paki"? What does her show have to do with our tourism industry? The San Pedro Sun had a chance to chat with Rosalie herself this past Sunday at BC's after several calls and emails, and the vivacious host herself answered many of these and more pressing questions. The following is her account of Oapn Paki and her death-defying jump.

First and foremost, what does "Oapn Paki" stand for?

The word 'Paki' is short for the Kriol word 'Pataki' which is an old English word 'Valise' (I think) for a leather suitcase with leather belt-type straps. When opened, the Valise is wide open there are no pockets or hidden compartments, and all contents are in clear view. Pataki was then shortened in the 1800's to Paki for Short. Hence a Paki is a Valise with nothing hidden. The Kriol expression 'Oapn Paki' means, someone who has nothing to hide, speaks his/her mind, no holds barred and says it like it is. When the Kriol Project was established, I, as a member of the Kriol Council, when I moved to KREM, changed the spelling of the show to the Kriol spelling of: 'OAPN PAKI'.

How did your show "Oapn Paki" begin and evolve?

The Show started in 2000 as a weekly

An exhilarated Rosalie describes her skydive as “aerialgasmic”.

Radio Show at FM 2000 just after I returned to Belize after living some six months in Nagoya, Japan. I left FM 2000 to go to KREM (Evan Hyde’s Radio Station) after about two years because, KREM had a wider audience, outside of Belize City, despite the fact that KREM is basically a ‘grassroots’- Kriol’ Station. While at FM2000 I started to cultivate a wide cross section of ‘educated’ Belizean listeners and when I went to KREM, my listeners followed, and those who never listened to KREM crossed over.

I was there for two years and left to go to LOVE FM/LOVE TV because they are the only entirely nationwide radio station, plus we are internet connected as well! I get calls sometimes from the Himalayas & Holland, how do you like that? Over the past two and a half years at Love, I have continued to produce a Show which is informative, educational, entertaining and human interest related. Over the past two years I have leaned towards doing Reality Shows, Tourism related Shows and Shows outside of the Studio to create a more exciting Two Hour Show. In that we have a weekly lobster. Top on our list was also the Reef and Beef dish, which could be built to one's taste. The Tenderloin with shrimp sounded perfect, and as such, our order was placed. While we waited for our food to be ready, we looked around and observed other fellow diners. Gathered from the snippets of conversation we overheard some people stating they were repeat customers. At a table a few paces away were some friends, who highly recommended trying the Chocolate Rum Mousse Cake for dessert. Dessert already! We keep that thought in mind as we enjoy our margaritas.

More customers stream in, and pretty soon, the restaurant is abuzz with conversation and laughter. Owner Kevin Reppuhn comes by for a quick chat, and we find out that in the few weeks Sunset Grill has been open, word of mouth has spread quickly. The charming waiters and waitresses, the great food and wonderful drinks all contribute to a great experience while at Sunset Grill. He emphasizes that he has taken great pride in providing customers with the best, and his staff is hugely responsible for the success of this new venture.

Pretty soon, Walter is leading the way to our table with some of the most beautiful dishes we've set eyes on. Artfully decorated platters highlight our

Sueño del Mar

Paradise has a new address...

Experience the Difference!

People are talking...Hear what the buzz is all about...

We would love to tell you all about Sueño del Mar,
Ambergris Caye's private residential resort community.

We could go on and on about the luxuriously furnished villas, beautifully landscaped grounds, oceanfront setting, Concierge service, and our outstanding staff.

We could also tell you how Membership combines all the amenities and services of a luxurious Caribbean resort, with the best features of two-month fractional ownership, for the perfect vacation home.

But rather than tell you ourselves, we thought it would mean more coming from our owners. Here is what they have to say:

We spent our first two weeks at Sueño del Mar this past November. Besides the "spending time in paradise", the thing you enjoy almost immediately is the "Culture" created by the associates that work for the resort. Debbie and Ray are not "just" the managers, Dwayne isn't just the chef, Omar isn't just the bartender, and Chico isn't just the security guard. These people become true friends. The success of all organizations really depends on one thing, and that is the "culture". The management of the organization has successfully developed a great staff. Even in paradise the people do make the difference.

Rusty Hamilton, Banker -
Butler (St. Louis), Missouri

What Sueño del Mar means to me is an escape from reality where I can spend quality time with my family and forget about the everyday grind. The resort feels like my home but with 5-star services from handling all air reservations, pre-arrival grocery shopping, and airport pick-up to a nice bottle of wine waiting for us when we arrive. Not to be forgotten is Chef "Mr. Flower's" world class cooking. When I hear the song "no shirts, no shoes, no problem" I think of Sueño del Mar and long for our next visit to a place we call "paradise" and home.

The Hertz Family -
Sueño del Mar #2C & #8C - June/July
Alan Hertz, President, Allied Fire Protection -
San Antonio, Texas

We have been dealing with Land Properties for years in their other projects. Sueño del Mar is by far our very favorite. We have been traveling to Belize and Ambergris Caye for 10 years now, and we love it up on the north end of the island. We just spent all of October and November living in our vacation villa at the resort, and wish we didn't have to get back to our home in Colorado so soon. The setting is gorgeous, the water is great, and the diving and fishing are world-class. Best of all, the wonderful staff at Sueño del Mar makes the experience extraordinary.

Mike & Tammi Coleman,
Contractor - Westcliffe, Colorado

"From a pure enjoyment standpoint, the best investment I've ever made was our membership in Sueño del Mar. The villas, landscaping, and facilities are unmatched with respect to quality and luxury.

From a service perspective, my family is pampered from the moment of arrival ... even before our feet hit the dock! The staff and team and Sueño are fantastic ... they have literally become our extended family."

- Dr. Ed Paul, Honorary Consul of Belize -
Wilmington, North Carolina

"My husband and I were not sure we could find enough to do to keep ourselves busy and fully enjoy two months in our villa at Sueño del Mar last winter. To make a long story short, we found that two months just wasn't enough time for us. We made lots of new friends and thoroughly enjoyed our stay at Sueño for all of January and February. When the time came, it was hard to leave to go back to Colorado. We can't wait to get back home to Sueño in January 2007."

"After looking at beachfront property all over mainland Belize and on Ambergris Caye, it did not take us long after visiting your beautiful resort to make up our minds to purchase. We made our selection of Oct/Nov based on the times of the year we thought we could best travel and get away from work.

Buying a membership into this beautiful paradise was our choice based on the fact that there is nothing for us to concern ourselves with — the good people at Sueño del Mar take care of everything ... all we have to do is pack a bag each Thanksgiving, and we know we have a wonderful group of people waiting to take care of all of our needs. It just felt like "home" from the first moment we stepped on to the dock. We look forward to many fun and happy times at our vacation home at the resort."

Wanda & Jack Scruggs, Chattanooga, TN
Sueño del Mar #2C - Oct/Nov

The word investment takes on many meanings and offers many benefits when you connect it with Sueño del Mar. The unique approach to membership, the truly complete commitment to member satisfaction, and the level of service and support encompass any resident with the secure feeling of "a very good deal". Jane and I chose to own August/Sept to fit our particular business "seasons" with my involvement in the Las Vegas travel industry. Sueño del Mar is the vacation home of our dreams, and we can't wait for next summer to come.

enthusies about Sunset Grill, and re-counts his forays in the cooking industry. We learn quite a bit about Chef Nal while he arranges our table for us, and we look forward to tasting his meals, which look so beautiful, we fear pictures just might not do it justice.

The Lobster Lambada is positively gleaming with the delightful cream sauce, and the perfectly poached lobster sits nestled amongst the creamy spinach, perfectly cooked vegetables and gorgeously browned roast potatoes.

With its perfect location out on the water, Sunset Grill affords customers a quiet, cozy dining spot that feels worlds away.

The Reef and Beef combo is equally presented, the saucy tenderloin married with a skewer of grilled shrimp, accompanied by creamy pasta and vegetables. While the plates looked delicious, the smells emanating from them were positively heavenly and we were quite excited to dig in.

After first biting into the crunchy, seasoned vegetables, the roast potatoes simply begged to be tried. With a small dollop of sour cream, the first bite was pure bliss. These were in a class all their own – crisp outside, and hot and soft and perfect inside! And let's not forget the lobster - with its creamy sauce, alternately sweet and tangy, it was just wonderful. Being a lobster lover, it was hard for me to pass up this dish. The manner in which it was prepared, with such a delectable sauce, was icing on the cake. Two thumbs way up!

Next up was the Reef and Beef. The Kathryn Cooke has fun with her Chocolate Rum Mousse Cake, which, in her own words, is "to-die-for!"

The San Pedro Sun's

Beef wasn't always as popular as it is today. America has had cattle since the mid-1500s, but most immigrants preferred either pork or chicken. Shortages of those two meats during the Civil War, however, suddenly made beef attractive and very much in demand. Today's beef comes from cows (females that have borne at least one calf), steers (males castrated when very young), heifers (females that have never borne a calf) and bulls under two-years-old.

Ideally, beef is at its best – both in flavor and texture – at 18 to 24 months. The meat at that age is an even rosy-red color. If the animal is over two and a half years old, it is usually classified as "well-matured beef" and, though more full-flavored, the meat begins to toughen and darken to a purplish red. Slow, moist-heat cooking, however, will make it perfectly delicious.

To store fresh beef: If the meat will be cooked within six hours of purchase, it may be left in its plastic-wrapped package. Otherwise, remove the packaging and either store unwrapped in the refrigerator's meat compartment or wrap loosely with waxed paper and keep in the coldest part of the refrigerator for up to two days for ground beef, three days for other cuts. The object is to let the air circulate and keep the meat's surface somewhat dry, thereby inhibiting rapid bacterial growth. Cooked meat should be wrapped airtight and stored in the refrigerator. Ground beef can be frozen, wrapped airtight, for up to three months, solid cuts up to six months.

Butter Beef

"Easy, melt in your mouth onion-buttery beef from your slow cooker! Serve over cooked egg noodles."

Prep Time: 5 minutes

Cook Time: 5 hours

Ready in: 5 hours and 5 minutes

Ingredients:

3 pounds cubed beef stew meat

1/2 cup butter

1 (1 ounce) envelope dry onion soup mix

Directions:

Place the beef and butter into a slow cooker. Sprinkle the onion soup mix over. Cover, and cook on Low for 8 hours, or High for 4 to 5 hours. Stir once or twice.

tenderloin was drizzled with a delicious peppercorn sauce, and cooked to a perfect medium rare, it was tender and juicy. The piquant bite of the fresh peppercorn sauce was exotic on the palate, and melded with the beef to simply melt in one's mouth, bite after delicious bite. The vegetables and pasta were cooked just right, all combining for a cacophony of tastes that left one swooning for more. With the generous portions on our plates, it was fun to share and taste, and we were left sated and delighted.

As if on cue, Walter appears at our table, offering dessert! We worry that we might be just a bit full to have dessert each, but agree to split one. We remember the recommendation from Kathryn Cooke, the diner a few tables from us, and place an order for a Chocolate Rum Mousse Cake. In her words, this particular cake was "to die comments I received from the Show we did in San Pedro at Captain Morgan's and Turtle Inn in Placencia. I repeated it a few times and people stop me on the street and say that they had no idea that we had resorts like this.

At 9:00 a.m., Monday morning, February 12th, 2007, Rosalie, along with her Tandem Master Instructor, Doug, with over 14,000 jumps, boarded the Perris Valley, Calif., Skydiving Carrier, along with 20 other Skydivers, and took off into the wild blue San Pedro yonder. Upon reaching an altitude of 13,000 feet, Rosalie, with Doug navigating, proceeded to experience what's its like to Skydive. Some 5 minutes later, having reached an altitude of 1,500 feet, with their parachute performing perfectly, the duo coasted over the north end of San Pedro

Town and executed a perfect landing at the Los Cocos Landing Site.

Why did you choose to do the Skydiving episode?
 I did the Skydiving Show because I wanted to do a spectacular show to highlight "Oapn Paki's" seventh birthday, highlight the Boogie in Belize Skydiving Event in San Pedro, a vanguard of Tourism, and I wanted to make the show a truly Reality Show and experience Skydiving. It makes for an exciting Show.

How was your experience?
 My skydiving experience was absolutely 'aerialgasmic'. It was like being in heaven and floating on clouds, which I did and loved every minute, although I cried just before the jump and when I landed on earth.

Would you do it again?
 Yes, I would do it again, but not this year.

To view Rosalie's once-in-a-lifetime experience, tune in to the "Oapn Paki's" seven-year Birthday Show with the Boogie in Belize Team on Sunday, February 25th, 2007, from 10:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., on Love F.M. & Love T.V.

Layers of chocolate cake and creamy mousse make this dessert “to-die-for”.

for”, and we couldn’t wait to taste it for ourselves!

The fated cake arrives on a beautiful dessert platter, drizzled with a chocolate sauce, and topped with the perfect cherry. It looks scrumptious, and after the first bite, we confirm that it is a cake that could launch a thousand ships (or fishing boats!). The layers of cake and mousse, topped with a light and airy cream, are just sweet enough, and with a bit of the chocolate sauce, it’s enough to induce a fabulous chocolate coma – from which you never want to awake! If you can only have dessert, this is the way to go! Enjoy a glass of your favorite wine with your dessert and contemplate the gorgeous sunsets over the water.

Sunset Grill offers a wonderful and welcome change of scenery for dining, with exemplary meals that will keep you coming back for more. With their current track record of repeat customers, the lagoon side’s secret is soon to be exposed. In fact, it is fast becoming the place to enjoy a luscious romantic meal, whether it is breakfast, lunch or dinner. Come over to the ‘other side’ of this island and try out Chef Nal’s fabulous creations! Sunset Grill is located on the lagoon, at the old Thunderbolt Water Taxi location. For dinner reservations, be sure to call 226-2600, and come on by – it’s a three minute walk from Main Street! Come dine, indulge and enjoy a new dining experience in a beautiful, local setting.

If the weather provides rain or wind, the clear curtains offer perfect shelter from the elements.

Wolfe's Woofers by Dennis Wolfe

In the Family Way

"I think I really need to learn to speak Spanish," Kim said. "Is your wife still teaching that Spanish class?"

"No," I told her. "Right now she's between classes but she'll be starting a new one soon. You could join."

"I probably couldn't take the class anyway," Kim said. "Kevin and I are here in San Pedro a lot but usually it's only a week or so at a time."

The Kellys own a bar in New Jersey that keeps them busy but they're here so often I sometimes forget that they don't live here.

"Why do you need to learn Spanish?" I asked. "Almost everyone in the country speaks English."

"Our maid doesn't," Kim said. "She does all the shopping and I have a lot of trouble telling her what to buy, especially at the butcher shop. Last week I needed chicken legs and when I finally got desperate I pointed to my legs and clucked like a chicken."

"Did it work?"

"She came home with chicken legs. A few days later I needed chicken breasts so I clucked like a chicken and pointed at my chest. Sure enough, she bought three pounds of chicken breast."

"It sounds like a good system."

"It is, but yesterday I ran into a real problem. I needed some sausage and couldn't figure out how to tell her."

"What did you do?"

"I called Kevin in from outside to take care of it."

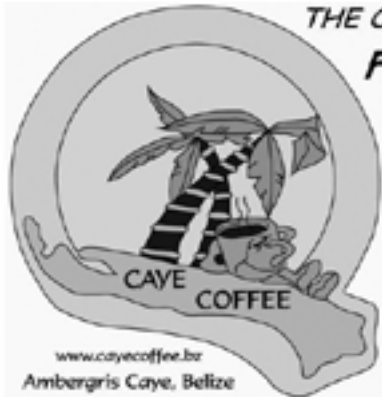

"Oh, my God," I said. "He didn't...?"

"What? Oh, don't be silly," Kim said. "I called Kevin because he knows the Spanish word for sausage."
