Dining in style at La Palmilla at Victoria House - We enjoy a scrumptious array of dishes and great sushi courtesy of Chef Nori!

For some fun and adventure, we go deep sea fishing with Dilzon - it's time for Mahi Mahi and some Tuna!

What a thrill ride it was pulling in that huge Mahi Mahi! Locally known as "dorado", it had green and gold flanks that lit up with a rainbow of iridescent colors, making it a beautiful catch.

Greetings to my visiting friends

On behalf of the people of San Pedro Town, I extend a warm welcome to all visitors arriving to our shores. I assure you that your trip to “La Isla Bonita” will be no ordinary vacation. Our island is famous for its rich cultural diversity, where Mestizos, Creole and Garinagu blend to form a unique encounter. While here, I encourage you to explore the Caribbean Sea and find Belize’s abundant treasures. Hol Chan Marine Reserve and Shark-Ray Alley are just two of the many spots where you can enjoy our coral reef formation and abundant and breathtaking sea life. San Pedro is also home to world-class fishing and scuba diving.

For the more adventurous, “La Isla Bonita” offers a wide array of water sports and for those looking to get a glimpse of the mystical world of the Maya, these historical ruins are just a short expedition away. You will also be able to discover Belize’s vast cave systems and many natural sanctuaries that are home to our country’s unique flora and fauna.

Whether you are spending your honeymoon at an exclusive resort or looking for an adventurous, yet romantic escape, San Pedro is surely the place to be. I invite you to explore our home and see the many wonders it has to offer.

We welcome you with open arms. Bienvenidos a San Pedro!

Elsa Paz, Mayor,

La Palmilla Restaurant

A divine dining experience at Victoria House

Dining at Victoria House can be as romantic or as casual as you desire. Whatever your choice, you are bound to be very well looked after and will enjoy the cuisine of fresh local ingredients and seafood.

The Combi Plate can be a delicious treat on Fridays. Let Chef Nori prepare you the three sushi choice available for that night. The Lobster Mango Roll, Japanese Dragon Roll and the Tuna Roll are a definite must try.

The pristine white beaches and gorgeous landscaping, a blend of nature and modern day amenities, are simply a taste of what Victoria House has to offer. Located approximately two miles south of San Pedro Town, Victoria House is a getaway only dreamed about in fairy tales and perhaps the best travel guides in the world. However, even those do not hold a candle to the beauty and professionalism found within the shores of Ambergris Caye.

A luxurious resort, with only 45 rooms (casitas, suites and villas), Victoria House is fully equipped to make sure that it meets every single one of your needs. One of their main attractions has to be the dining experience they offer to their guests and visitors. La Palmilla restaurant is renowned past the coral reef in Ambergris Caye. Their dining options are varied and depend on the mood that you may be in.

La Palmilla offers breakfast, lunch,

a bar menu as well as the dinner a la carte menu, for which they are most known for. Dinner is an exquisite experience but you can make it as casual

Fishing with Dilzon!!

Dilzon takes his time to dress up the “ballyhoo” which he used as bait. Its tantalizing pink lures brought us a 50 pound Dorado.

Sunny skies, soothing breezes and the deep Caribbean Sea was the perfect setting for an afternoon of big game fishing at its best. The Sun tagged along with fisherman extraordinaire Dilzon Murcia, to take on the big waves and go beyond the reef just a few miles offshore to catch a variety of big game species using light and big game tackle.

The experienced captain Dilzon and his first mate David help the vacationing fishing enthusiast bring in any fish, even if they have little or no previous experience. Your adventure can be slated for either a full day or a half-day on his fishing boat. Once onboard “Dilzon Charters” you will be in pursuit of big game fish. Our boat ride up to our destination felt like riding a rollercoaster with the sea’s high waves kicking us up and down and from side to side – “Whoo, what a thrill ride.” With tackle, and fishing lines casted, the fishing escapade began.

In our Caribbean waters, fish are caught year-round and with an abundance of species to choose from including, Blue Marlin, White Marlin, Sailfish, Wahoo, Dorado, Tuna, Kingfish, Barracuda, Grouper and more. The fishing trip was amazing, and Captain Dilzon’s ability to sniff out where they were kept us on fish all day.

Fishing with Dilzon

Whilst basking in the sun and the wind caressing every inch, we watched excitedly as Dilzon got his first tug on the reels.

Our first tug came not too long after we had thrown over the well dressed “ballyhoo” used as bait. Standing at the railing of the fishing boat, the high seas and salt spray go unnoticed as all attention is focused on keeping a firm grasp on your fishing pole. At the other end of the fishing line, a black tuna fights to free itself and return to the deep seas around San Pedro which it calls home. Like a domino effect, the other lines started to tug and we all grab a hold of a line to start the reeling in. Pulling the fish in was a workout and took a while but was truly fun at the same time. Although it felt like pulling in a sea monster, when all was said and done, it was another fishy surprise, a blackfin tuna. One fish got a lucky break, as he managed to unhinge himself from the hook and got away, “Wow, what a big one and it got away!!” were the cries of those a board.

As the sun set, the evening skies were a sight to behold. The warm

fuzzy feeling calmed the soul and relaxed the mind, but that was not the end of the trip. Again, we saw the tug on the fishing rod and immediately started reeling in. Who would have thought that our luck would change: almost 15 minutes in and Dilzon was fighting with the catch of the day. Closer and closer it got, and we realized it wasn't a blackfin tuna but something much bigger. Could it be a shark, a barracuda or blue marlin playing mind games with us? At the end of the line it was a beautiful green and yellow fish, the name of which we didn't know at the time, until Dilzon told us what it was. A good sized mahi-mahi was at the end of the line; a beautiful fish locally known as "dorado" and wow what a beauty it was. The fish had green and gold flanks that light up with a rainbow of iridescent colors. We were awestruck by the sight of this big catch "dorado" which was a first for most on the boat. We felt like winners for having caught such a big fish, but the darkness of the night was setting in on us so we reeled in our lines and started with our trip back home.

The fishing trip was fantastic, we enjoyed every last minute and promised Dilzon that we would return to do it again. Dilzon wasted no time in cleaning, cutting and distributing the tuna fillets to everyone on board. The hardest part was deciding how to cook it!

What ever level of fishing expertise you may have, or whatever it is that you hope to experience from a day of fishing, Dilzon can more than accommodate you. Your day will be personally tailored just to meet your every expectation, and it is no wonder that his customers always leave happy and satisfied. Come and see for yourself why so many fishermen come from all over the world to fish in our beautiful Caribbean Sea every year. Dilzon promises that his trips are guaranteed to be an unforgettable fishing experience. For further details and to arrange a trip, call Captain Dilzon at 620-6118.

All four of us were very proud of the catch we helped reel in on this very exciting trip. With the help of Dilzon and his trusty aide David, we managed to bring in two Blackfin Tuna and a good sized Mahi Mahi.

Good Things To Know About San Pedro Town & Belize

Government

Belize has been an independent nation since 1981. It is a member of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

Ambergris Caye

Ambergris Caye is twenty-five miles long; its width ranges from a few hundred feet to over four miles. Northern Ambergris Caye is separated from the southernmost tip of Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula by a small channel. After arriving in Belize City, a short fifteen minute airplane ride gets you to San Pedro, or if you would rather take the scenic route, an hour's boat ride will get you there as well.

Language

English is the official language and is widely spoken, as is Spanish. Other languages include Creole, Garifuna, Mayan and German.

Climate

Belize weather is characterized by two seasons: a rainy and a dry season. Most of the year's rainfall occurs during the period of June to November, that is, the rainy season. The average temperature varies from 81°F/ 27°C along the coast to 69°F/21°C in the hills. The coldest month is January while the highest temperatures are experienced during the month of May.

Cash & Currency

U.S. dollars are accepted as currency countrywide. The common exchange ratio is $2BZ/$1 U.S. Licensed moneychangers offer a slightly higher exchange rate, ranging from $2.05BZ to $2.12BZ, depending on the current market.

Nearly all hotels, restaurants and shops accept Visa, Master Card and travelers' checks. Street vendors and smaller establishments in remote areas may accept only cash or travelers' checks.

Sales Taxes

Belize's sales tax is set at 10% and it is applied to all goods and services. Some hotels also add a 10-15% "service charge" to the bill; inquire about this when checking hotel prices.

Transportation

The streets are sand, which is great for walking or bike riding. There are few cars; instead, the vehicles of choice are electric golf carts, which are available for rent. Please remember that all golf cart drivers MUST have a valid drivers license. Drive with caution, there are many speed bumps around the downtown area that are not marked and always be on the lookout for potholes. Taxi service is available everywhere south of Boca del Rio. Around town the average fee is $7 - $10BZ. Some local business, as well as resorts, rent bicycles.

Telecommunications

All telecommunications services (direct dial phones, fax, telex, cable) are available. There are several "Internet Cafe's" on the island where you can access the internet through high-speed internet or satellite connections.

as you'd like. La Palmilla overlooks the pool and the beautiful Caribbean Sea, and of course dining under a starlit sky simply screams of romance and magic. The restaurant itself is air-conditioned, candle-lit and cozy; however a casual dinner may be enjoyed at the Admiral Nelson's Beach Bar. Wherever you chose to dine, you can be sure that Chef Masanori Aoyagi's eight years experience will delight your taste buds and take them on a full-fledged Caribbean ride.

Originally from Japan, Chef Nori

Dining at La Palmilla Restaurant is an exquisite experience. The candle light, soft music and cozy ambience makes your dinner an unforgettable experience.

has come to enjoy and love Caribbean cooking. Experimenting with the various spices and fruits, Chef Nori has incorporated his Eastern elegance to the extensive menu. Whether preparing a seafood platter or something from the land, Chef Nori never disappoints and you can be certain that your dining experience at La Palmilla will be unsurpassable.

With a truly accomodating staff, dinner can be reserved not only for the dining room but out on the deck at the bar for a more casual dining experience if you so desire!

As you step foot inside the restaurant, the transition to another world begins. Glowing candle light and soft music are among the first ingredients thrown into the magical mix. Our waiter, Francisco shows us to our table, beautifully arranged and adorned with a single strand of blooming lilac orchids. While our water glasses are filled, we peruse the menu and begin to ponder on the various choices. From Crispy Snapper Cakes, served with chipotle buerre blanc, a black bean and roasted corn succotash, and Tempura Shrimp, tossed in a creamy, spicy sauce with a soya reduction, the appetizers already make it a difficult choice. However, our decision is made a lot easier when the waiter mentions that Fridays are Sushi Nights at Victoria House. Settling for a Chef's Choice, we get a platter with all three sushi choices.

The Lobster Roll is completely and truly a great blend. Chef Nori has perfectly mastered the mix between Caribbean and Eastern flair with a lobster meat roll topped with delicious, sweet mango bits. The Japanese Dragon Roll is a roll you must have; smoked eel and cucumber topped with avocado and Kabaike sauce, while the Spicy Tuna Roll is crispy in a tempura batter with tuna, avocado and mozzarella cheese. The staff at the Admiral Nelson's Beach Bar make thirst quenching drinks to your liking. Dinner is not only reserved for the dining room, have your meal on the deck at the bar for a more casual dining experience.

Creating his stellar dishes at the helm of La Palmilla's kitchen is Chef Nori. Having transferred from San Ignacio to San Pedro, Chef Nori comments that he particularly enjoys cooking in Belize because of the variety of ingredients and spices he can incorporate into his dishes. This is immediately apparent upon sampling the various dishes he prepares for us.

Chicken Steak

Ingredients

5lb. boneless chicken breasts
Fajita Seasoning
Black Pepper
Season- All
½ Cup Vinegar

Sauce

3 cups BBQ Sauce
½ cup Steak Sauce
3 tbsp. Prepared Mustard
3 tbsp. Worcestershire Sauce

2 tbsp. Soy Sauce
¼ cup Marie Sharps
4 tbsp. Brown sugar
2 cups water
4 medium onions, sliced
3 Lrg. sweet pepper

Sprinkle seasoning over boneless breast. Slightly pound breast and add vinegar. Refrigerate over night. Mix sauce and set aside.

Brown the seasoned chicken breast in hot oil both sides. Place breast in heavy pot. Add the sauce. Turning breast occasionally, simmer until sauce is absorbed and onions are tender.

Chicken Wraps with Roasted Tomato and Goat Cheese

3 large tomatoes, sliced
2 tbsp. olive oil, divided
Salt and pepper
¾ cup (about 5 1/3 oz.) goat cheese, softened
2 tbsp. minced parsley
2 boneless, skinless chicken breasts (about ¾ lb.)
1 ½ cups shredded romaine lettuce
4 flour tortillas (about 8" in diameter)

Heat oven to 300° F.
Line sheet pan with foil; place tomato slices in single layer. Drizzle with 1 tbsp olive oil and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Bake until slices have shriveled slightly, about 30 min.

In a small bowl combine goat cheese and parsley. Heat remaining 1 tbsp oil in medium nonstick skillet over medium high heat. Add chicken and sauté 8-10 min., turning once. Place chicken on cutting board and let rest 5 min; cut into very thin slices.

To assemble, heat each tortilla for 10 seconds in microwave to soften, then place in a clean work surface. Spread with cheese, then top with lettuce, tomato and chicken. Roll tortillas tightly; wrap in plastic wrap and chill. When ready to serve, remove from plastic; cut diagonally into 1" pieces. Serve with a soup if desired.

Heart of a Gambler

"So how did you do at bingo?" Dulce asked.

"I got skunked," Drummer Dan said.

He took a break from setting up his drums at the Roadkill Bar where we were getting ready to play our Monday Country and Western Night gig.

"I did not make a single bingo all night long," he told her. "By the way, where were you?"

"I couldn't make it to bingo. I was too busy getting things ready for a wedding that I'm doing tomorrow. It broke my heart not to be there."

"Dulce sure does like to play bingo," Dan said, as he returned to setting up the drums.

"It's not just bingo," I told him. "If it has anything to do with gambling, she loves it."

"Really?"

"Oh, yeah. She's got the heart of a gambler. She probably doesn't remember our anniversary or our grandson, Davin's birthday but she remembers every nickel she ever won at gambling."

"I heard that!" Dulce said, from the bar.

"What did you hear?"

"You said I don't remember our anniversary or Davin's birthday."

"Well, do you?"

"Of course. Davin's birthday is the same day I hit the jackpot on the number four machine at Pier Lounge and our anniversary is on the same day I got the royal flush at the Palapa Bar."

Trivia Tidbits

*Temperature and crime are correlated. Many more crimes are committed in the hot summer months than in the cold winter months.

*In ancient China, towns were often arranged in patterns so that if seen from the air, the whole community would resemble an animal or a symbolic design. Some were arranged to resemble snakes, stars, sunbursts, and dragons.

*Reportedly, Virginia Woolf wrote all her books while standing.

*In the adult human body, there are 46 miles of nerves.

*In San Salvador, drunk drivers can be punished by death before a firing squad.

*Domesticated turkeys (farm-raised) cannot fly. Wild turkeys can fly for short distances at up to 55 miles per hour. Wild turkeys are also fast on the ground, running at speeds of up to 30 miles per hour.

*Cornelius Vanderbilt was an insomniac. He was not able to fall asleep unless each leg of his bed was planted in a dish filled with salt. He felt this kept out the evil spirits.
